PECO Pallets Now Shipping into Walmart Canada Stores

February 3, 2014 (Irvington, NY): PECO Pallet, Inc. recently announced that the company has entered into a pallet recovery agreement with Walmart Canada, giving vendors the option to utilize PECO's high-quality wood block pallets when shipping into Walmart Canada locations.

PECO Pallet's distinctive red wood block pallets are used by leading grocery and consumer goods manufacturers to ship products to retailers, club stores, and distribution centers throughout the U.S., Canada, and Mexico. Empty pallets are then returned to a PECO depot, where they are inspected, cleaned, and repaired as needed before being reissued.

Walmart Canada is Canada's largest retailer, operating a growing network of more than 370 stores throughout Canada, including traditional discount stores and supercenters. Headquartered in Mississauga, Ontario, Walmart Canada employs nearly 90,000 associates.

Adrian Potgieter, PECO Pallet's Senior Vice President of Sales, stated, "We are very pleased that Walmart Canada recognizes the value in partnering with PECO Pallet, and we look forward to providing a level of quality and service that align with Walmart's high standards. As PECO continues to expand our North American service network, we will continue working closely with renters, distributors, and retailers to ensure a smooth transition at all Walmart Canada locations."
